GEORGETOWN COLLEGE WORK IS UNDER WAY

Student Body and Alumni Given Credit for Increased

Enrollment.

Bonors for Last Year Were Awarded and Schola Brevis

Full schedule of studies of the un dergraduate department of Georgetown College began today. The freshman class of all departments is expected to

The college opened formally yesterday morning, the students assembling in Gaston Hall. President Donlon Welcomed them and urged the new students to keep high the standard of college activity. The large increase in encollment, he said, was due to the enthusiasm of the students of last year and to the loyal activity of the alumni. Honors for last year were awarded and schola brevis was held. The honor winners follow

Fund Causes Alarm in

MEXICO CITY, September 2 (by cou rier to Vera Cruz and mail to New Orleans, September 17) .- Instruction received by Charles J. O'Connor, repre sentative here of the American Red Cross, from Gen. Devol, director of Mexican relief work, that no more funds were available for the work, caused much auxiety among Americans, other foreigners and Mexicans, when the news became generally known in Mexico City today. Mr. O'Connor cabled Gen. Devol that more than 160,000 inhabitants of this city were dependent on some form of charity and that the Red Cross was

Would Mean Starvation.

Applications for assistance from 22, 000 families, embracing approximately 99,000 individuals, have been registered Algebra: First honors-Edgar Russell at Red Cross headquarters here. Mr Connor in his cable stated that withdrawal of the Red Cross relief work from Mexico at this time would be followed by many deaths from starvation. At the beginning of its work here Red cross agents Kelly, Washington, D. C. Second hon-ors-William Joseph Anderson, Wash-ington, D. C. Honorably mentioned— from Mexico at this time would be foltwenty-five deaths daily to the lack of proper nourishment.

This rate has been considerably reduced since the establishment of soup kitchens. There is virtually no corn in the markets, and the little available in small shops costs 2,200 per cent more than the price a year ago. Beans are procurable at a price twenty-seven times that of a year ago. of proper nourishment.

had to close owing to lack of supplies.

The Red Cross agents here stated they had sufficient supplies to continue the relief work for three more weeks.

Several American and foreign relief organizations and clubs today issued an appeal to the American Red Cross, at Washington, urging the society "for humanity's sake again to appeal to the American people. Surely, those who responded to Belgium's need with such liberality will not refuse to save innocent women and children in Mexico."

Forty-five small yachts, valued at more than $80,000, were burned at Miami, Fla., recently, when fire destroyed the J. B. Southall boatyard. Most of the yachts were owned by northern people.
